

What Other assistance is available to training providers?

There are valuable resources available to training providers who need assistance in developing income-oriented short course and for those training providers who have difficulty providing the required information to the SDTF. The SDTF personnel will provide relevant information to training providers seeking assistance.

Skills Training Resource Unit (STRU) - This unit develops and collects existing skills training resources to assist training providers in their efforts to design and deliver income-oriented short-courses.

STRU is a valuable resource for training providers who wish to access hundreds of the competency based training modules covering many different skills areas. The information & material available at STRU is available to all training providers on request.

Please Contact the STRU Director at: PO Box 1097, Waigani. NCD
Telephone: 323-2633 Facsimile: 323-0944

Now I'm ready!

